Jamey Denison is an independent songwriter who has toured throughout the country performing in churches, auditoriums, and appearing on television and radio.

Denison has performed in many mainstream and independent churches as well as many Christian and Charitable organizations.

He has had songs signed with major publishing companies such as Homeland and Chestnut Mound in Nashville and has single releases that have been distributed across the United States and Canada by Coastal Promotions, Heartfelt Productions and DreamWind Records. His smooth, laid-back style has been coined “Southern Pop”, with a performance that is upbeat, encouraging, and appealing to audiences of all ages

Jamey writes about faith, hope, love, and life. His songs are refreshing and thought-provoking with lyric content that is known for it’s biblical soundness, and originality. One of the most meaningful compositions he has penned, “God Holds The Puzzle” is the most requested in his concerts and recording sales. This song is included on a “Best Of Jamey Denison” CD which was released in 2010 on the Provision Records label. An additional “Best Of-Volume Two was released in January of 2016.

Jamey is now performing sings from his eighth CD, “Truer Than True” which was released in late January, 2016.

The concert is free and the public is invited to attend.
